

English

Reading

- Fantastic beasts and where to find them
- Beedle the Bard

Writing

- Newspaper reports- Prisoner escapes Azkaban. News reporter hot seating.
- Instructions - How to ride a Hippogriff
- Information text- Fantastic beasts and where to find them
- Persuasive writing - Tv advert for Harry Potter confectionary

Mathematics

Powermaths

- Graphs and tables - interpreting and representing data
- Multiplication and division - factors, prime and composite numbers. Use squared and cubed numbers.
- Measure - area and perimeter

Enrichment

Outdoor orienteering to locate beasts

Languages – Spanish

- Days of the week
- Months of the year

I can create a Spanish calendar and add key dates such as family birthdays and annual events

Christmas - Spanish nativity role play

Year 5 – Autumn term 2

Fantastic Beasts and where to find them

Art and Design

Use shading and cross hatching techniques to sketch the New York City skyline.
Create pixelated portraits of fantastic beasts in the style of Chuck Close.

Computing

- E- safety - Learn how to use the internet safely
- Make 'Wanted' posters using power point
- Research Fantastic Beasts and New York City

PSHE

- Building and maintaining friendships
- Research, discuss and debate topical issues
- Understand that behaviour within school, at home and within the community has consequences

Design and Technology

Food technology - even beasts get hungry!

Prepare and make your own magical chocolate bar and wrapper

Physical Education

- Swimming
- Dance

We can create dances using a range of patterns

Science

- Get sorted!
- Everyday Materials

Compare and group together everyday materials on the basis of their properties, including their hardness, solubility, transparency, conductivity (electrical and thermal), and response to magnets

History

Create a New York City fact file, including The Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island.
How was America discovered?
How was the city built?

Geography

Locate countries and states of North America on a map and study key characteristics
Study of New York - physical v's human features
Comparison of London to New York
Outdoor beast hunt orienteering using co-ordinates

Music

Listen to Harry Potter and Fantastic Beasts themes-discuss imagery and technical musical vocabulary and make comparisons

Religious Education

- Peace
Explore the symbolic use of a wide range of objects, sounds, visual images, actions and gestures